

Internal Business Applications – (Personal Absence Tracker, Nagios, WebLoad, Timesheets Pro, AutoCAD)

Felix Aksentsev | Manager, Internal Business Applications

This document captures 5-years Roadmap for the following components of Internal Business Applications portfolio:

- Personal Absence Tracker (PAT) is the web application used to track and report staff absence times.
- Nagios is the technical monitoring system responsible for 24/7 monitoring of more than 100 enterprise servers (UNIX, Linux, and Windows).
- WebLoad is the QA load testing software.
- Timesheets Pro is a web and client PC tool to record working time for billing and tracking purposes.
- AutoCAD is a web and client PC technical drawing tool.

| Year | Milestones |
|------|---|
| 2010 | Upgrade WebLoad load testing software to its current 8.5 version – completed |
| 2011 | Enhance Nagios monitoring plug-ins and expand the scope of monitored systems Migrate TSPRO functionality to a time-tracking tool of choice – TBD Upgrade PAT infrastructure - completed |
| 2012 | Replace PAT with a dedicated PeopleSoft Time And Attendance Module - TBD AutoCAD version upgrade – TBD Upgrade Nagios to its commercial version |
| 2013 | WebLoad version upgrade - TBD |
| 2014 | Nagios upgrade - TBD |

